Back from the Abyss Podcast

Dr. Heacock is the co-creator and host of "Back From The Abyss", a podcast where people share their stories of plunging into the psychiatric abyss and how they got out. This is a non-commercial service project. Sharing stories has always been the way people connect and offer their hard-earned wisdom and insights, and Back From The Abyss continues in this tradition of people helping people through stories.

Listen in to hear and learn from others and feel free to share with your clients! The website is www.bftapodcast.com; episodes can be played directly from the website or via iTunes, Google Play, Stitcher, or Spotify

Facebook Group for Northern Colorado Therapists

Miriam Bellamy, LMFT has created a closed Facebook group for local therapists. This forum will serve as a place to connect with other therapists and share information for classes, groups, workshops, offices for lease, referrals, etc. This is also a great space for general support.

To request to join this group, search for "Fort Collins Therapist Network" on Facebook.

Happy connecting!!
